STAT

1. The Intelligence Community Staff has the responsibility of managing the development and publication of the DCI National Foreign Intelligence Program Budget justification books that are presented to Congress in January of each year. These thirteen volumes are produced at CIA Printing and Photography Division based upon justification material supplied by various members of the intelligence community. The production of these books requires that non-CIA personnel have access to the CIA compound during nights and weekends as well as normal working hours.

2. As required by the referenced memorandum, it is requested that the below named individuals be granted special access to the Agency compound for the period beginning November 5, 1982 until February 11, 1983.
